7. Show management reserves the right to decline to permit an exhibitor to conduct and maintain an exhibit if, in the sole judgment of show management said exhibitor or exhibit, or proposed exhibit, shall in any respect be deemed unsuitable. This reservation relates to persons, conduct, articles of merchandise, printed matter, souvenirs, catalogs, and anything else, without limitations, which affects the character of the exhibit, and therefore the show. The use of loudspeakers, recording equipment, television sets and radios, or the use of operating machinery which is of sufficient volume annoying to neighboring exhibitors will not be permitted. Such speakers if permitted must be within the confines of the contracted exhibit space and facing inward (not toward the aisles).

As relates to the display areas, no part of that display can be higher than 8 feet.

As relates to bulk space, no portion of any exhibit may be above 8 feet in height without show management being provided a complete and detailed perspective drawing of the exhibit, with release absolving show management and sponsors of any responsibility for liability in the event of structural failure. 11. It is agreed that neither ICHRIE, Le Sheraton Centre Montreal Hotel, nor their respective officers, representatives or employees are responsible for any injury, loss or damage that may occur to the exhibitor or exhibitor's employees or property from any cause whatsoever, prior to, during, or subsequent to the period covered by the exhibit agreement and by the execution of this agreement exhibitor expressly releases and discharges and agrees to hold show management, their agents, employees and assigns harmless from and against all claims, demands, damages or losses of any kind or nature arising out of the activities encompassed by this agreement, including any negligent conduct of show management, its agents, employee and assigns. Watchmen will be furnished, but the furnishing of such watchman will not be deemed to affect the non-liability of this section of this agreement, if insurance is desired, it must be secured by the exhibitor. It is recommended that exhibitors take individual precautionary measures such as securing easily transportable articles of value and their removal to a place of safekeeping after exhibit hours or while the booth is not manned. It is further agreed that all material brought by the exhibitor is the responsibility of the exhibitor and that show management hereby disclaims all responsibility for these articles. These parties hereto acknowledge that the forgoing disclaimer of liability has been negotiated between the parties and is reflected in the charges applicable to this agreement.
12. In the event of the postponement of the show for any cause, it is agreed that show management shall have a period of ninety (90) days from the postponement to reschedule and reproduce the show. If the show is rescheduled and reproduced within this period, it is agreed that all aspects of this agreement remain intact and that exhibitor will reschedule his exhibit in order to participate in this rescheduled exposition.
