

Amber McGuire

Interim Executive Director

Amber McGuire is excited to join the ICHRIE team as the interim Executive Director. Amber earned a Bachelor of Arts in English Writing from DePauw University. She served as a Senior Event Manager, then the Director of Event Planning at the JW Marriott Hotel in Washington, DC, and performed sales and planning roles at the former University Place Conference Center and Hotel in Indianapolis.

Amber is also the lead planner for the Academic Chairpersons Conference, serving in an ongoing part-time capacity with Indiana University Indianapolis Event and Conference Services. Her non-profit leadership, fundraising and operational experience includes many years as a board member, and the initial executive director, of Kids Discovery Factory, a children's museum she helped launch in her hometown of Batesville, Indiana.
