

Vintage Vegas by ICHRIE

Fremont Street Experience

<https://vegasexperience.com/>

“Fremont Street Experience is the original Las Vegas entertainment district—an electrifying, five-block destination where vintage Vegas charm collides with modern-day excitement. Home of downtown Las Vegas’ most renowned hotel and casinos, free live concerts, dazzling neon lights on The Canopy™ and the iconic SlotZilla zipline, you’re invited to the greatest party the desert has ever known. Every. Single. Night.”

The Mob Museum-National Museum of Organized Crime and Law Enforcement

<https://themobmuseum.org/>

“The museum is an organization with a mission to advance the public understanding of organized crime’s history and impact on American society. The museum offers a provocative, contemporary look at these topics through hundreds of artifacts and immersive exhibits.”

Pinball Hall of Fame Museum

<https://www.pinballmuseum.org/>

“The Pinball Hall of Fame is an attempt by the members of the Las Vegas Pinball Collectors Club to house and display the world’s largest pinball collection, open to the public. A not-for-profit corporation was established to further this cause. The games belong to one club member (Tim Arnold) and range from 1950s up to 1990s pinball machines. Since it is a non-profit museum, older games from the 1960s, 1970s and 1980s are the prevalent, as this was the ‘heyday’ of pinball. PURE PINBALL!”

The Peppermill

<https://www.peppermillasvegas.com/>

Since 1972, the Peppermill has been a legendary spot in Vegas. If you are looking to get a taste of vintage Las Vegas, check it out.

“Step inside a time capsule of classic Vegas, complete with Tiffany-style flamingo lamps, plush royal blue booths, mirrored walls, an iconic fire pit, and nostalgic dishes.”

The Neon Museum Tickets

<https://neonmuseum.org/>

The Neon Museum “illuminates the cultural essence of Las Vegas by sharing iconic signage, diverse collections, and stories that define its vibrant past, present, and future.”
