

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

ROSEN COLLEGE OF HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

Assistant, Associate, or Professor

The Opportunity

The Rosen College of Hospitality Management at the University of Central Florida (UCF) invites applications for multiple, full-time, 9-month faculty positions at the rank of assistant professor (tenure earning), associate professor (tenured), or professor (tenured), with an anticipated start date in August 2025 or later. We seek candidates whose experience and plans emphasize fundamental research in the fields of entertainment management, event management, lodging management, foodservice/culinary/beverage management, and/or theme park management. Rank and salary will be commensurate with the credentials, background, and experience of the candidate. Hiring and promotion are based solely on merit.

The selected candidates will develop and instruct various courses at the undergraduate and/or graduate levels, and participate in university, college, and department committees. They will be expected to publish in appropriate journals and establish vigorous externally funded and creative research programs, curate and nurture industry relationships, and have a strong commitment to excellence in undergraduate and graduate education.

The Rosen College of Hospitality Management is comprised of approximately 69 diverse faculty that represent 18 different countries and are recognized for their research, teaching skills, and professional experience. Our students are exposed to some of the most modern well-designed learning laboratories as they pursue one of the many B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. majors we offer.

UCF is a leading metropolitan research-intensive university with over 68,000 students. The Rosen College of Hospitality Management, located in Orlando, Florida, offers students an unrivaled opportunity to learn and work in the heart of hospitality. Named the nation's #1 college for research and hospitality education by the 2023 Shanghai Rankings, UCF Rosen College is committed to providing an environment where we educate the next generation of industry leaders through internationally recognized faculty, innovative academic programs, cutting-edge research, and strong industry and community partnerships while delivering a global perspective on hospitality management, event management, entertainment management, theme park, and attraction management, and lodging and restaurant management.

Minimum Qualifications:

A doctoral degree with an emphasis and/or application in Hospitality Management or a related field from an accredited institution by the time of appointment and demonstrated industry experience. To obtain tenure, the selected candidate must have a demonstrated record of teaching, research, and service commensurate with rank.

Preferred Qualifications:

A demonstrated, consistent and strong record of research in hospitality management, event management, entertainment management, attraction management, theme park management, lodging and foodservice/culinary/beverage management that is inclusive of publications in highly ranked hospitality, tourism, or business journals, and a strong record of teaching, service and industry engagement/relationships that is current and consistent with UCF standards and aspirations.

Additional Application Materials Required:

UCF requires all applications and supporting documents be submitted electronically through the Human Resources employment opportunities website, <https://www.ucf.edu/jobs/>. In addition to the online application, candidates should upload a cover letter, a current curriculum vitae, and a list with contact information for three (3) professional references.

NOTE: Please have all documents ready when applying so they can be simultaneously uploaded. Once the online submission process is finalized, the system does not allow applicants to submit additional documents later.
